

BETHEL

David G. Brown, 67, Died Yesterday—Funeral on Wednesday.

David G. Brown, aged 67 years, died yesterday at the home of Mrs. Rose Aldrich, where, with his wife, he had lived several weeks. His health was poor all summer and early in the fall he had a shock from which he had been confined to his bed. He was born in Warren, devoted his life to farming and had lived here 11 years. He is survived by his wife, who was Mrs. Carrie (Dalton) Savage before her marriage to him, and by a daughter, Mrs. A. R. Fielders of Randolph. He was a member of the Lympus Methodist church. The funeral will be held Wednesday noon with interment at West Brookfield beside a former wife, who died of burns received at their home in this town.

Miss Alma Bailey of Morrisville is visiting at A. N. Washburn's.

Mrs. H. H. Shepard gave a whist party last evening for the benefit of Rising Star grange.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy died last Saturday evening.

Miss Phyllis Bullen gave a party to 15 of her school friends last Saturday to celebrate her ninth anniversary, which occurred Sunday.

Mrs. Michele Piedmonte, with her children, went Saturday to Milford, Mass., her former home.

C. Stanley Putnam attended last week a meeting of insurance agents at St. Johnsbury.

Miss Alice Bliss of Montpelier has been visiting at C. F. Waldo's.

F. V. Hassam went Monday to Deland, Fla., to pass the winter.

At the first military whist party of the season last Friday evening, the winners were A. Lee Cady, Mrs. Julia Whitcomb, Mrs. E. S. Putnam and Mrs. James Ross, holding Fort Hunt. There were proceeds of $17.16 for the Red Cross Christmas bags.

Mrs. Barbara (Podezzi) Caranichini has returned from Northfield, where she spent Saturday and Sunday and attended the wedding of Philip Gomez and Miss Rosa Ortiz, well known here. Mr. and Mrs. Gomez will be in Northfield the coming winter with the bride's mother and will go west in the spring.

A. H. Harrington of Gavaville will complete this fall a lumber mill at the mouth of Stony brook in Stockbridge, connected by a siding with the White River railroad.

J. H. Beckwith is visiting his mother at Alstead, N. H. During his absence John Morse is substituting on rural route No. 1.

Mrs. Mary Parker is with Mr. and Mrs. W. B. C. Stickney in Rutland for the winter.

The Thanksgiving rush of poultry and other perishable goods bound for the Boston market and other points east and south began yesterday, a total of about 10 truck loads being shipped from the local station, about half of which came over the White River railroad.

Patrick Lynch, formerly employed at the Woodbury Granite company's sheds at this place, returned Saturday and has resumed work here, recently having been employed at Bay View, Mass. His son, Bernard, came with him and is attending school. His older son, Theodore, who formerly lived here, has enlisted in the army.

EAST CALAIS

In spite of the bad weather and poor roads, several women met at the Red Cross rooms on Thursday and a large amount of work was done. Next Thursday being Thanksgiving, the Red Cross rooms will be open on Wednesday, at which time a Christmas box will be packed to send to France.

East Calais boys, now in England. Any of Frank's friends who would like to send some little remembrance at this time can do so and can leave same with A. A. Gove or at the Red Cross rooms. A box of scarfs, stockings and wristlets was sent on Saturday and a box of hospital supplies, wraps, socks, triangular bandages, knit washcloths and knit baggies will be sent Dec. 5. Jan. 5 the society expects to have finished about 1,000 4x4 compresses to be sent on that date.

Miss Grace Bliss is visiting friends and relatives in Newbury.

Miss Celia Wilbur recently visited Mr. and Mrs. Archie Saxby of Worcester.

Joe Legendre of Marshfield was at Lynn Gray's part of last week.

Edson York recently visited his sister, Mrs. Wesley Peck of Woodbury.

Mrs. Frank Bailey of Hardwick is spending a few days with her sister, Mrs. Etta Burnham.

Will Stealy of North Calais is helping Wayne Burnham in his blacksmith shop.

John Emery has finished work in the sawmill as sawyer and Charles Wilbur has taken his place.

Walter Eastman has returned home from visiting his sister, Mrs. Kate Kelley of Trenton, N. J.

Joseph Persons and Porter Colby spent Saturday and Sunday in Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Sparrow of Calais and Mrs. Lucy Kenyon of Montpelier spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Lee Keniston.

Miss Gladys Valentine of Moretown is spending the week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Valentine.

The village school closed Friday and the high school students returned to their homes for the Thanksgiving vacation.

Bring all your items of interest to your East Calais correspondent and thereby do your bit to aid the Red Cross work. The correspondent has very kindly donated all money received from items sent to the Barre Daily Times to further the work of the Junior Red Cross in Calais.

Mrs. Dean Holt was in Worcester Nov. 22 to officiate at the funeral of Mrs. Isaac Wheeler.

Mrs. George Parker visited her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Hatch, in Woodbury recently.

M. D. Hawkins and Herbert Emery were business visitors in Greensboro on Saturday.

Remember the promenade and dance at 11 a. m. and at Union church, East Calais, at 1:30 p. m., until further notice.

Miss Esther Dwinell is spending a few days with friends and relatives in Montpelier.

Mrs. Elmer Brown has returned home from Worcester, where she has been visiting relatives and friends.

All the young ladies in town and vicinity are invited to meet with Mrs. Guy Bancroft in the Red Cross rooms Saturday evening to form a Junior Red Cross. It is hoped that a society may be formed to help carry on this work. The place will be instructed in the work of making surgical dressings, knitting and all kinds of Red Cross home work.

The entertainment given by the school of the village Thursday evening was largely attended and was much enjoyed by all.

No Need to Rub

Try Sloan's Liniment and see how quickly the swelling is reduced and the pain disappears. No need to rub; it penetrates quickly and brings relief. Have a bottle handy for rheumatic pains, neuralgia, back ache and all muscle soreness.

Generous sized bottles, at your druggist, 25c., 50c., $1.00.

Sloan's The World's Liniment

RANDOLPH

Mrs. S. W. Howard and her daughter, Mrs. George Jerd, were in Royalton Monday to see the former's sister, Mrs. Rose Coudage, who is in a critical state, the result of two shocks of paralysis which she has sustained and which affect both sides.

Mrs. M. C. Washburn, called here by the death of Mrs. Carrie Alvord, returned to her home in Cambridge on Monday.

Miss Maud Johnston closes her term of service at the Half-Century store this week and starts from here Sunday for New York to join the Daneyou girls and go with them to Jacksonville, Fla., for the winter. Mrs. Hugh Clavin will succeed Miss Johnston as cashier in the Half-Century store for the present.

Mrs. V. D. Porter has been in Burlington and St. Albans for a few days stay, leaving here last Friday.

Edwin Goodwin arrived here on Sunday night from Hyde Park, Mass., for a few days' stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Goodwin.

Mrs. Harry Howard of Norwich arrived here on Monday, having been called by the death of her grandfather, Fabian Dupuis. Other relatives who came for the same purpose were a nephew, George Gove of Lyndon, and Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Morrill of Springfield.

A. N. Kathan, who has been in feeble health for weeks, remains about the same, but is in a critical state, with little hope of improvement.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Bethany church sent out for Thanksgiving more than twenty baskets of provisions. Many of these packages contained a dinner and others fruit and other delicacies. The distribution was to be made on Wednesday but all might enjoy the contents of the baskets on Thursday.

A union Thanksgiving service will be held at the Methodist church on Thursday morning, in which all the churches are expected to join.

Mrs. D. C. Wilnot of Barre is passing several days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Goodwin, and Mr. Wilnot is expected to join her here on Thursday.

Mrs. Frank Crowe, who has been ill with typhoid fever, is now improving, with a reasonable hope of permanent recovery.

SOUTH CABOT

George Stocker of Danville visited his son, N. M. Stocker, one day last week.

Anna Mulligan was in St. Johnsbury last Friday night.

Herbert Spencer and wife of Barre, Philmore Spencer and Miss Comstock of Plainfield visited Cynthia Spencer Sunday.

Elva Shaw and Goldie Stocker were at Ralph Hopkins' in Cabot Thursday.

Gerard Scribner went to Montpelier Saturday to stay a few days with his parents.

Fred Lapan of Plainfield was at E. M. Putnam's the last of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Avon Hall visited at Mortie Bemis' in Marshfield over the week end.

John Morse was in Barre on business the first of the week.

Nelson Baldwin of Barre was at Avon Hall's over Thursday night.

Elmer Clark was in North Calais Sunday night.

Aura Clark returned from Barre Sunday night.

Card and Idella Tucker of Cambridge are visiting their grandmother, Mrs. Atkins, for a week.

Erna Bashaw was home from her work in Calais over Sunday.

Leroy Dow of Cabot was a guest of Byron Eastman over Saturday night and Sunday.

Anna Mulligan went to her home in Hardwick Saturday for a week's vacation.

Some 65 or 70 friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Brien spent Friday evening with them Refreshments of cake and coffee were served and a general good time was enjoyed by all.

May Connor, the teacher at East Cabot, is passing the week end at her home in Barre.

Fred Crain of Bethel spent the week end with his mother, Mrs. Janet Crain. A daughter, Helen, was born the 14th to Mr. and Mrs. Harry Ferguson.

Home Lambert has put in temporary partitions in his dance hall and will live there through the winter.

The many friends of Miss Jessie Blanchard are pleased to hear she is gaining at the Randolph sanatorium from a very serious operation.

Misses Helen and Bertha Wheeler visited friends in Northfield Friday and Saturday.

Randolph grange gave a very pleasing program at this grange last Saturday night.

Mrs. Dean Holt was in Worcester Nov. 22 to officiate at the funeral of Mrs. Isaac Wheeler.

Mrs. George Parker visited her daughter, Mrs. G. A. Hatch, in Woodbury recently.

M. D. Hawkins and Herbert Emery were business visitors in Greensboro on Saturday.

Remember the promenade and dance at 11 a. m. and at Union church, East Calais, at 1:30 p. m., until further notice.

Miss Esther Dwinell is spending a few days with friends and relatives in Montpelier.

Mrs. Elmer Brown has returned home from Worcester, where she has been visiting relatives and friends.

All the young ladies in town and vicinity are invited to meet with Mrs. Guy Bancroft in the Red Cross rooms Saturday evening to form a Junior Red Cross. It is hoped that a society may be formed to help carry on this work. The place will be instructed in the work of making surgical dressings, knitting and all kinds of Red Cross home work.

The entertainment given by the school of the village Thursday evening was largely attended and was much enjoyed by all.

The outdoor girl protects the skin and complexion from all weather conditions. Soothing and healing after exposure. Relieves sunburn, tan and rough or chapped skins. Try it today.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream

Sent 10c. for Trial Size

FERD. T. HOPKINS & SON, New York

CABOT

Dr. M. D. Warren was called to Brownsfield, Me., last Saturday morning, the second time within two weeks, this time to attend the funeral of his brother and his wife, whose deaths occurred within a few hours of each other. He had returned from there only the Tuesday night previous, after visiting his sister, who was ill with pneumonia at the advanced age of 81 years, instead of 84, as was reported. She is now on the way to recovery.

The Y. M. C. A. has met with good success here, $1800.00 having been raised, $1475.00 in cash and $325.00 in subscriptions.

The Red Cross Christmas sale, which is to be held in the Congregational vestry, will be held on the afternoon and evening of Dec. 7.

John Bent recently lost his horse by its getting into a moist piece of ground and becoming so chilled it died.

Although the deer hunting has been pronounced the poorest this season that it has been in many years, there were several lucky ones in this town: Will Walker, Clair Garney, George Laird; Avon Hall, Fred Houghton, Raymond Houghton and A. G. Cassidy, South Cabot; Carter Brown, St. Johnsbury. All these shot their deer near South Cabot.

Mason Hoyt was a guest of relatives in Craftsbury recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Gambin and son of Morrisville were guests at Piny Smith's recently.

Mrs. G. J. Hawes has been ill the past week.

Thanksgiving services will be held in the M. E. church Thursday at 10:30 o'clock, after the custom of former years.

Mr. and Mrs. Clare Garney were business visitors in Barre Saturday.

Harry Pike of Walden has purchased the S. J. Norris farm.

Friday afternoon, Nov. 16, a number of Red Cross ladies gathered at their room and made 40 Christmas bags for soldiers. These bags are to be filled with the following suggested articles: Khaki-colored handkerchief, 27 inches square, for container; writing paper pad about 7 by 10 inches; envelopes, pencil, postals, book in paper cover, scrubbook, (home-made), containing a good story, some jokes, etc., knife, such as boy scouts use, sewing, needles, mouth organ, electric torch, compass, mechanical puzzles, games, Red Cross checkerboards, chewing gum, fruit, chocolate and other sweetened crackers in original packages, fruit cake, preserved ginger, salted nuts, prunes, figs, dates, raisins, hard candy, chocolate in tin foil, licorice. Two candles are to be placed in each bag, which are to be made by the junior high school pupils.

The people interested in the Red Cross work will be pleased to learn that they can send their Christmas packages to their soldier or sailor friends through the Red Cross. The plans are to have all such packages brought to their room on or before Dec. 7, as they must be shipped the 8th. They will be forwarded to division warehouses and thence distributed through division officers to the persons addressed. The packages must be addressed the same as for sending singly by mail or express.

The Red Cross shipment last month was valued at $100.50. It contained six sweaters, 21 mufflers, 18 pairs hose, 12 pairs wristlets, six pajama suits of two pieces each. There is a call for all linen tablecloths, which can be made into napkins, also worn-out linen napkins which can be used for dressing gowns. Any article donated toward filling the Christmas bags will be gladly received at the Red Cross rooms. A Junior Red Cross branch is about starting, which will enlist the school children.

NORTH CALAIS

Mrs. Ida S. Young of Barre came to Claude Young's Saturday for a few days' stay.

Dell Powers of Hardwick was in town Monday to attend Mrs. Betsey Marsh's funeral.

Wayne Martin was in town last week for a few days' stay.

Mrs. Lucetta Hawkins, who has been assisting in the care of Mrs. Edith Beard, returned to her home in Morrisville on Monday.

Dean Holt was a business visitor in Montpelier on Wednesday.

Markus Cutler of Montpelier visited his aunt, Mrs. Mabelle Young, the first of the week, and Albert Young returned home with him for a few days' stay.

Mrs. Jennie Martin was a visitor in Hardwick for the week end.

The public schools closed on Friday for a week's vacation.

Louella Kittell went to her home in St. Albans Saturday for the week.

It is hoped there will be a good attendance at the W. R. C. meeting next Saturday evening, Dec. 1, as it is the annual election of officers.

A few of the friends and neighbors met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. I. S. Tabor on Tuesday evening, Nov. 20, to remind them that it was the eighth anniversary of their marriage. Mr. and Mrs. Tabor had retired for the night, but upon being informed they had called outside, they "rose to the occasion" and after hastily donning a few garments, most graciously greeted their guests. A very pleasant evening was enjoyed and refreshments of cake, coffee, sandwiches and doughnuts were in abundance. Mr. Hill in a pleasant manner presented Mr. and Mrs. Tabor a remembrance, to which they feelingly responded, and with many a good wish for the host and hostess, the party broke up in the early morning hours and returned to their several homes.

Mrs. Frank Scribner is confined to the bed by illness.

WEBSTERVILLE

C. N. Lamphire and W. E. Doherty moved their families to Quincy, Mass., Saturday.

George Anderson went to Springfield, Mass., Saturday, where he has employment. Mrs. Anderson is visiting her mother, Mrs. F. S. Davis, of Brooklyn street, Barre.

Annie Greenleaf went to Springfield, Mass., Saturday, to make an extended visit with friends.

Ernie Bruce, who is employed in Barre, spent the week end with her mother.

Frank and William Greenleaf and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Moore of Lakeport, N. H., were in town Saturday on business.

About 20 Spaniards left Saturday on the midnight train for New York to seek employment.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Lucia, who have been visiting relatives here for a few weeks, returned to Springfield, Mass., today. They were accompanied by the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Lucia, who expects to reside there.

Mr. and Mrs. Eckman Polky went to New Bedford, Mass., today.

Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Genero went to Chicopee, Mass., Friday.

Dr. J. F. Plainfield of Barre preached at the Baptist church Sunday and his sermon on "Labor and Religion" was listened to by a large number. Rev. W. H. Bishop expects to be able to fill the pulpit next Sunday morning.

Corn Pain Stopped Quick

Corns Lift Right Off with "Gets-It"

Bliss relief from corn pains is simple as A B C with "Gets-It."

When you've been limping around for days trying to get away from a heart-drilling corn or bumpy callous, and everything you've tried has only made it worse, and then you put some "Gets-It" on and the pain ceases right away, and the corn peels right off like a banana skin—"ain't it a grand and heavenly feeling?"

"Gets-It" has revolutionized the corn history of the world. Millions use it and it never fails. Ladies wear smaller shoes and have pain-free feet. We old fellows and young fellows forget our toes and feel Friday as a cult. Everybody with a corn or callous needs "Gets-It." We will all walk about and enjoy ourselves as we do without corns. Get a bottle today from your druggist, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. 25c. is all you need to pay.

Sold in Barre and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Cummings & Lewis—Adv.

away, and the corn peels right off like a banana skin—"ain't it a grand and heavenly feeling?"

"Gets-It" has revolutionized the corn history of the world. Millions use it and it never fails. Ladies wear smaller shoes and have pain-free feet. We old fellows and young fellows forget our toes and feel Friday as a cult. Everybody with a corn or callous needs "Gets-It." We will all walk about and enjoy ourselves as we do without corns. Get a bottle today from your druggist, or sent on receipt of price by E. Lawrence & Co., Chicago, Ill. 25c. is all you need to pay.

Sold in Barre and recommended as the world's best corn remedy by Cummings & Lewis—Adv.

MARSHFIELD

Herbert Guyette and family of North Montpelier were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. H. C. Hollister Sunday.

Forrest Hawes is visiting his sister, Mrs. Granville Laird, in Walden, this week.

Miss McBride has finished a successful term of school in the primary department and left Friday for her home in St. Albans.

Ernest Tanner of Montpelier was a visitor in town Saturday.

Mrs. Kate Hadlock and daughter, Blanche, left Saturday for a visit in Williamstown.

Miss Elsie Welch is spending the Thanksgiving vacation with her parents in Corinth.

The postoffice will observe the usual holiday hours Thanksgiving day and some of the other business places will be closed all day, among them being A. W. Clark's mill.

There will be a community Thanksgiving service Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the Congregational church, to which all are welcome.

Elbridge Rosebrook of Claremont, N. H., was the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Rosebrook, over Sunday.

WEST BROOKFIELD

Mrs. Wilbur Kingsley is visiting friends and relatives in Fair Haven.

The Sunshine class entertained the home department at Mrs. Christopher's Wednesday afternoon. Supper was served to about a dozen of the classes. A program and visiting in the afternoon were enjoyed. A prayer meeting was also held there in the evening.

David Phillips is working in Northfield for the present.

Mrs. John Maloney visited at Lewis Stevens' one day last week.

Fred Blanchard is home again from New York, where he went to take examinations, which he did not pass.

Wilhelm Untiedt is home from Randolph Center for a week's vacation.

GRANITEVILLE

Rev. Myles O'Farrell and his brother, James, returned to Quebec Saturday after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Patrick O'Farrell.

Walter and Elmer Belleville left yesterday for Hartford, Conn., where they expect to secure employment.

Alex. Bowersman returned on Saturday from Philadelphia, where he spent a few days' on business.

Regular meeting of branch No. 12, Q. W. I. U. of N. A., will be held in Miles' hall on Wednesday evening, Nov. 26, at 7:30 o'clock. A good attendance is desired.

The ladies' aid society will meet at the home of Mrs. John D. Morrison to-morrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

WEBSTERVILLE.

Everyone invited to attend the firemen's ball, opera house, East Barre, Nov. 28. Carroll's orchestra, five pieces. Dance tickets $1, gallery 25c. Supper, 35 cents per plate—adv.

WHY WOMEN DREAD OLD AGE

Don't worry about old age. Don't worry about being in other people's way when you are getting on in years. Keep your body in good condition and you can be as hale and hearty in your old days as you were when a kid, and everyone will be glad to see you.

The kidneys and bladder are the causes of such afflictions. Keep them clean and in proper working condition. Drive the poisonous wastes from the system and avoid uric acid accumulations. Take GOLD MEDAL Bladder Oil Capsules periodically and you will find that the system will always be in perfect working order. Your spirits will be elevated, your muscles made strong and your face have once more the look of youth and health.

There is only one guaranteed brand of Bladder Oil Capsules. GOLD MEDAL. There are many fakes on the market. Be sure you get the Original GOLD MEDAL. Imported by Bladder Oil Capsules. They are the only reliable. For sale by all first-class druggists. Adv.

Welding and Brazing of all kinds, including cast iron stoves and farm machinery.

A. M. Flanders

Barre, Vt.

PLAINFIELD

A son was born Friday, Nov. 16, to Mr. and Mrs. Noble Dunkling.

Gardner Noble has moved his family to East Calais.

Allen Martin was among the successful hunters to bring in deer last week.

Dr. Frank Wheeler was in Burlington Wednesday and Thursday.

Mrs. Blanche Perrin was in Montpelier Thursday.

The many friends of Mrs. J. B. Wells of Cambridge will be sorry to hear she is not as well.

Mrs. A. E. Foss has returned from a week's visit in Laconia, N. H., with her sister, Mrs. Ed Wiggins.

Mrs. George Brown visited Mr. and Mrs. Ben Warren of Montpelier Wednesday.

Mrs. H. E. Cutler spent Thursday in Montpelier.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Cate and family visited Mr. and Mrs. Austin Cate of East Calais Sunday.

Mrs. Kate Woodcock spent Friday and Saturday in Barre with relatives.</